Dedication

During our years at Westwood High School, you have always supported and encouraged us. You were helpful as a teacher, and we trusted you as a friend. Always faithful to our interests, you rejoiced with us in our successes and reassured us in our difficulties. Your sense of humor, and ability to show us our problems in proper perspective never failed to inspire us to persevere and succeed. Your kindness, understanding, and loyalty have been greatly appreciated.

It is with deepest gratitude that we dedicate our 1982 Green Years to you, Mrs. Hollis Perry.

MR. KOCINA RETIRES

This year marks the end of an era for the high school, the school system and the town, as it sees the retirement of Principal Duane E. Kocina.

From his beginning 34 years ago as a social studies teacher, to his past 12 years as principal, Mr. Kocina has seen enrollments grow from hundreds into thousands. Through that his priorities remained the same; first and foremost has always been the education of the student body. Mr. Kocina has worked with virtually every academic and extra-curricular activity helping to coordinate them so as to present a well rounded atmosphere for the students. His success is evident in the fact that 85% of all graduates from the high school go on to some form of higher learning. Mr. Kocina has also worked extensively with the Westwood Scholarship Fund, which makes awards annually to students at graduation.

The students and faculty will miss Mr. Kocina, and they send along a wish that his next 34 years may be as happy and successful as the last.

SENIORS

Senior Class Poem

We are all together like the leaves on a tree and yet we stand alone.

We try to fit in with the rest and desire to be accepted and known.

Every new step is taken cautiously with the fear of making a mistake.

We reach out for encouragement and praise, hoping that our spirit will never break.

We struggle to gather strength in this little town called Westwood.

We will take whatever is passed to us because we are destined to be winners and share our brotherhood.

In our own separate ways we reach out for love, warmth, security, and hope to find satisfaction.

We will mature in given time and will no longer be blinded by that shining light but will spring into action.

As we fall from the tree, the wind carries us in separate directions, perhaps some to the far reaches of the earth.

We shall meet up with some fulfilling times, unexpected events, triumphs, victories, tears and defeats.

With the flow of the wind we will be swept along into a new world making our lives complete.

We shall grasp the challenges that life has to offer.

We never give up because we are neither quitters nor scoffers.

Later on in life perhaps our paths will cross, but for now we are young, naive and adventurous.

We are the class of '82.

ACTIVITIES

Student Advisory Board

This year the SAB, under chairperson Mariana Giovino, inspected the prospect of a fast food lunch program, reviewed student rights and incorporated meetings with the School Committee and members on an informal basis in the school atmosphere. Senate members Rick McKenna and David Callaghan attended meetings for Massachusetts Regional Board of Education which gave the board insight into new academic ideas and solutions to pending problems at the high school level.

Student Council

Once again, Westwood High School's Student Council had a busy year organizing many projects to benefit the school, the student body and organizations outside of the school.

President Sean Fitzpatrick, Vice-president Dori White, Secretary Paula Ballantine, and Treasurer Lauren O'Brien started the year with the fourth annual Homecoming Week, which was a tremendous success. The officers also supervised the writing of a Student Council Constitution, the delivery of carnations at Christmas and a Bloodmobile.

Thanks to the invaluable guidance of Dr. Pendell and Mr. Baker, the Student Council was able to preserve traditions and set new trends for the future at Westwood High School.

Boys' and Girls' State

Student representatives to Boys' and Girls' State spend a week at local colleges studying state and local government. Participants are organized into towns, countries and political parties. Mock elections are then conducted to set up complete executive and legislative working bodies. Students gain a greater understanding of the mechanics of government by actually carrying out its daily functions.

American Field Service Club

Under the outstanding supervision of Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey, the AFS Club has had a fun filled year. The officers were Jim Frew, David Kelliher, and Sheila Roach. They did a wonderful job coordinating two short-term exchanges, a festive Christmas party, a very popular international dinner, and many more worthwhile activities. The club membership was one of the largest ever, indicating the popularity and success of the club's efforts. One of the club's most popular members was Edward LeCesne Byrne, our AFS exchange student for the year from Ireland. He spent the first half of the year with the Babineau family and the second half with the MacPherson family. The club also welcomed Mimia Fuentes from Costa Rica and Beatrice Knobloch from Germany. We hope these members and all of the club enjoyed the year, and we hope next year will be as profitable and as successful.

The group also traveled to Connecticut for an exchange concert. The members were Laurie Kirby and Lisa Robinson, sopranos; Jennifer Murray and Michelle Macari, altos; William Conway and William Seward, tenors; George Gonser and Thomas Glynn, basses; and Pamela Baggeroer, accompanist. The group would like to thank Mr. Markarian, their director, for his many hours of dedication to this select singing group.

The Westwood High School Strut was a self-directed group this year. The Strut performs hit songs from the forties. This year, the group entertained at the A.F.S. International Dinner and at the annual Pops Concert.

The members of the Strut should be commended for their showmanship and talent.

No Parentheses

i am the desert spread barren beneath a starry sky with me you can remember your secret dreams
and i will keep them forever buried beneath my shifting sands

i am a mountain peak concealed by to have them whipped into nothingness

by the swirling winds

i am a piece of paper stretched blank before mankind with me you can pour out your

"No Parentheses", Westwood High School's literary magazine, was a sensational issue this year. Mr. Michael Milan, in his second year as teacher-advisor, provided valuable guidance to the fifty member staff. Contributions from students ranging from freshmen to seniors flooded the staff, giving them a wide variety of poems and stories to choose from.

Many thanks go to all who helped make this year's issue of "No Parentheses" one of the best ever.

Despite the loss of many talented members of last year's group, the Westwood High School Math Team, under the dedicated guidance of Coach Pender, had a fine season this year. Strong performances were made by Beth Allman, Liz Grube, Deborah Ganem and Captain Bob Prevett. Also instrumental in this year's consistent showing were underclassmen Paul Friedman, Laurie Quinn, and Herb Chen.

With a majority of members returning to compete next year, the Math Team can look forward to an outstanding 1982-83 season.

Once again, Westwood High School students and faculty displayed their pride and enthusiasm during the fourth annual Homecoming Week.

The class competition began on Monday, Hat Day. Preliminary elections for the Homecoming Queen and her Court were held. On Tuesday, Pajama and Teddy Bear Day took place for the first time. The halls of Westwood High School were filled with color on Wednesday, Clash Day, as students and faculty wore mismatched clothing. Thursday brought another new addition to the fun-filled week, Toga Day.

Homecoming

Friday, Green Pride Day, finally arrived and the winners of the Homecoming Competition were announced. The seniors won, and were awarded two pounds of M&M's. Second place went to the freshman class. Alexa Davis was crowned Homecoming Queen. The two senior court members were Katie Effgen and Dori Whitie. Tracy LaCamera represented the junior class, Laura Boucher the sophomore class, and Laurie Losardo the freshman class.

Both the football and soccer teams won their homecoming games.

Saturday night, the Halloween Dance took place.

The fourth annual Homecoming Week had been a great success, thanks to the Student Council and Mr. Baker.

Green Years

Under the direction of a new advisor, Mr. William Ducheneau, and Co-Editors Mary-Ann Winkelmes and Kathy Burke, the 1982 Green Years was well under way early in the year. The many hours of hard work contributed by all involved certainly aided in the production of this book.

Several money-raising events held during the year helped supplement the yearbook funds. The raffling of Christmas stockings filled with Hershey Kisses was a popular fund raiser as was the yearbook photograph sale. The most successful event was the yearbook spaghetti dinner which attracted hundreds of people.

In this book, we have endeavored to capture the memorable events of the 1981-82 school year. We hope these pages bring you happiness when, in the future, you look back and reflect upon your "green years" at Westwood High School.

Only a heartbreaking triple-overtime loss to Bridgewater-Raynham in the state quarterfinal match tarnished an otherwise outstanding season.

Freshman Year

As seniors, it is difficult for us to recall the feelings that we had as we entered the high school: feelings of excitement, of anxiety and of fear, as our big-shot days of the eighth grade came to an end.

We elected class officers: Rich Bradley, Karen and Kathy Burke, and Katie Effgen. We joined together with great cooperation in the A.F.S. magazine drive. We were active in the first annual Homecoming Week, edging out the sophomores for third place in the class competition. Kim Cecca was our representative in the Homecoming Court. No one will ever forget Mr. Fischler's whole-hearted effort to show his green pride.

We were overwhelmed with the differences in our new school: unassigned free blocks with music in the mezzanine, those towering upper-classmen, the maze of halls, and the variety of activities. Those activities did not go without their hassles. We all remember field hockey girls in skirts and those goggled bathing beauties. But we made our mark. The girls' basketball team, with Cheryl Aaron and Donna Losardo, won the state championship. The boys' hockey team, with Jim Gavin and John Ogden won the Tri-Valley League championship, and the marching band won its first two competitions ever.

We closed out our year with a class trip to Scusset Beach, putting a successful end on a successful year.

Sophomore Year

Led by our competent class officers: President, Rich Bradley; Vice-President, Karen Burke; Secretary, Kathy Burke; Treasurer, Dori White, we confidently began our sophomore year.

Academically, we explored the world of biology with Mrs. Saltmarsh and Mr. Sarris, to whom we presented a stuffed banana, and Oral English with Miss Shute. No one will ever forget her diaphragmatic breathing exercises.

One of the major events of the year was the Second Annual Homecoming Week featuring such activities as "Hat Day" and "Green Pride Day". Maria Goddard represented our class in the Homecoming Court. With an overwhelming sense of sophomore spirit, we placed a respectable second in the over-all class competition.

As Sophomores we were well represented athletically. The Girls' Track Team won the League Meet and the State Relays, with our own Dori White capturing the state title in the two-mile event. The football team, while playing at Schaeffer Stadium, defeated Foxboro in the season opener. The team, with many sophomores earning letters, wiped Millis out of the Super Bowl for the second time in a row. The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team went undefeated and took the Tri-Valley League title once again. Cheryl, Kathy, Donna and Carol all saw playing time.

Socially, some of us fared better than past sophomores and were permitted to attend upperclassmen parties much to the dismay of a certain group of upperclassmen girls. As a class, we showed our innovativeness by holding a banquet-dance instead of the usual semi-formal. This was also the year some of us decided to order class rings.

We had finally made it through our last year as lowly underclassmen. We looked forward to our new status as upperclassmen and especially to the superiority that came with it.

finally approached and although we heard rumors about the difficulties involved in being upperclassmen, we moved in with pride and confidence.

It all began with those infamous PSAT's, Achievements, and finally the SAT's, which some of us loved so much, we took them again. Others took the SAT Review Course and, of course, aced them first time around.

Our class was under the leadership of President Dori White, Vice President Andy Hart, Secretary Carolyn Mason, and Treasurer George Conser.

We all understood the work load that was to be taken on as juniors and the horror stories that we had heard about it. Miss Congdon's US History and Mr. Tosca's AP, with his class performances, all rang true. We all took that dreaded chemistry and memorized valence charts for half of the year with Mr. Marx or Mr. Van de Workeen.

Our football team didn't do too well all season but when it came to the final game, against Holliston, the Wolverines really showed us who was boss. The Girls' and Boys' Basketball along with Girls' and Boys' Soccer all played in their perspective tournaments. The Marching Band did an excellent job this year! They placed in every competition and even stole the show at Norwood, walking away with first place and everything that went with it. The Girls' Field Hockey team did pull through for us this year, winning their one game of the season — a job well done!

Homecoming Week had been as exciting as it had been in previous years. During Friday's Pep Rally, as we cheered the football players on, we chose our representative, Dori, for the Homecoming Queen's Court.

Our musical this year, "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying", was a fantastic show. Bill Conway and Sandy Polechonis had a great time demonstrating their talents as they sang and danced their way to stardom.

The Prom, held at King Philip Ballroom, was a smashing success. The Queen's Court was represented by June Marshall, Jane Mitchell, Karen McCafferty, and Kathy Gennis. We danced the night away as we awaited the prom theme — "Keep on Loving You" — which never came.

Junior year had finally come to an end and senior year was just around the corner. We pulled together socially and scholastically, and now we were prepared to take on the best year of our lives.

Senior Year

As a class, we started our senior year in much the same way as previous classes. With apprehension and enthusiasm, we looked forward to whatever our final year at Westwood High School would bring.

Our class, led by officers Andy, Tony, Carol and George, was about to experience the year at the top. We were no sooner in school when we found ourselves off to Amaru's for our first senior class activity. The breakfast was a huge success and fun was had by all at the powderpuff football game afterwards. The cheerleaders were an added surprise. Who would have thought there was a group of guys with such nice legs right here at Westwood High School.

We got our first taste of what the number 256 really meant when we got our class rank. Well, we know at least one fifth of the class was happy. College applications and SAT's were also a big part of the fall. Everyone wondered where they should apply and where they could get in.

Homecoming week was a great success this year. Hat Day and Clash Day took off in their usual fashion displaying an array of colors throughout the school. And then there was that special surprise that made the administration a little bit upset. It was called a panty raid, and as a result, seventy-five percent of the senior class girls belonged to an exclusive club called the ten hour club. Green Pride Day capped off the week with the crowning of homecoming queen Alexa Davis and her senior court Kate Effgen and Dori White. The Halloween dance was fun for all making Homecoming Week a tradition once again.

Athletics played a major role in the fall too. Both the boys' and girls' soccer teams and the girls' volleyball team made it to the tournament. Both of the cross country teams were very successful, also. But the highlight of the fall was the football team. They had a winning season which was quite a change over last year. The perfect ending to a great season came the Saturday night parties. Who will ever forget Mike Arute's or Rich Bradley's and of course on occasion Tony had a whaler or two or three or four . . .

The winter was cold and long. The mad rush to finish college applications was on. Friday nights were usually spent at the basketball games which always provided exciting action. The track teams did exceptionally well as always. The ski team had better luck this year due to the snow which happened to be lacking last year. The girls' basketball team made it to the tournament only to be plagued with chicken pox and some disease Donna had which made her face look like one big mosquito bite.

Just when you thought all was lost the boy-girl hockey game was ready to be played. Who ever thought we had our own Bobby Orr right in Westwood. Of course his name was John Pinciario, but he skated just like a professional. After the game, everyone headed to Bobby McKelvey's house for a warming up party.

April came along and the inevitable hit, "Spring Fever". Only two more months of school left. Preparations were being made for the Senior Class Banquet and other activities. The theme for the banquet was "Waiting on a Friend". We had the pleasure of having our own Mick Jagger, Bobby McKelvey, sing with his band the "Tumbling Dice". Impressions of Miss Dillon and Mr. Milan left the audience rolling on the floor laughing. We also had another great surprise. The Attemptations sang their rendition of "My Girl". Will we ever know who they were? It may be a mystery forever.

The famous words "tomorrow is not a skip day" were spoken that night but no-one payed attention to them because Horseneck beach was very crowded the next day. The funny thing was that it happened to be all Westwood High Seniors. It was a great beach day but not for Al Haddad. He had a hard time finding his car when it was time to go home. He knew he was in trouble for skipping school, but a lost car wasn't exactly what he had in mind. Al finally got his car back but trouble wasn't over. Along with the rest of the class, Al spent an extra day in school. But the consensus says it was well worth it.

Spending a Friday in school was becoming non-existent for many seniors, but Mr. Gearon was thinking when he scheduled sports activities for teams on Fridays. At least half of the class would be in school half of the day. All the spring sports teams did well this year. The softball team made a great improvement over last year, as did the baseball team. The boys' and girls' track teams were well represented in the state meets and the tennis teams also fared well.

The next big activity planned was the junior-senior prom. Although the weather could have been better it was a huge success. Carolyn Mason was crowned queen and everyone had fun dancing to the music of "the Marsels." The greatest shock of the night came when the band actually played the theme song "Wishing on a Star".

Finals were over and school was out with only one week until graduation. It was the longest week in a senior's life. Even though the class trip was postponed a day to Thursday, everyone had a great time. Almost everyone went in the water whether they wanted to or not. Football and volleyball were enjoyed by all between eating meals of hamburgers, hot dogs, steamers, and chicken. On Friday, we filed into the gym for Class Day. Awards and trophies were given out to recognize students' achievements. Afterwards, we filed out for our last graduation practice.

Sunday, June 6, 1982, finally arrived. Despite the rain and overcrowded gym, graduation was a memorable event. As diplomas were handed out, we walked proudly up to receive them, realizing our four years at Westwood High School had finally come to an end.

As we reflect on the past year, we regret only that it must come to an end. Thanks and appreciation are had by all towards the faculty and administration for making our senior year at W.H.S. a memorable one. We can look forward to the future with its commitments and challenges. The future is our class of '82 — it will be what we make it.

Written by Dori White, John Henry, Karen Burke, Pam Shippey and Caroline Cavanaugh.

Senior Class Breakfast

November 11, 1981, was the day for the Senior Class Breakfast, one of our first fun-filled activities of the year. On the road to Amaru's, one could see a caravan of green and white decorated cars filled with very hungry green and white decorated people.

The aroma of coffee, ham and eggs greeted us as we arrived. When we had finished eating, awards were given out to the Powder Puff coaches and organizers. Amid victory chants and cheers, our caravan departed, psyched up for the Powder Puff game and displaying spirit never before seen at Amaru's.

Powder Puff

This year's Powder Puff Football team, led by Tri-Captains Bernie Collins, Trish Lawless and Donna Losardo, lost a rough and difficult battle to Dedham. The game drew the largest crowd ever and the fans were entertained by the lovely senior boy cheerleaders.

The Powder Puff team was coached by Ed Huber, Doug McKenna, Tony Antonellis, Rich Bradley and Jim Kane.

Although Dedham won, 18-14, both teams had a great time.

The girls would like to thank their coaches and the senior advisors for organizing the game and helping to make it a success.

Lovely Ladies!

Senior Class Play

The December 11th and 12th performances of Rally 'Round the Flag Boys were living proof that this year's Senior Class Play was a tremendous success.

After two months of hard work, Guido, Maggie, Hoxie and the rest of the gang were able to make the town of Putnam's Landing come alive.

Thanks to Miss Dillon and the direction of Miss Trisorio as well as the student direction of Susan Umscheid and Pam Ubillos it was an unforgettable experience.

Flea Market

Early in September the senior class began to gather items for the Flea Market.

On Saturday, September 26, 1981, a tremendous effort was put forth by Mrs. Perry, Miss Dillon and the spirited seniors to make our first fund raiser successful.

Spaghetti Dinner

The annual yearbook sponsored spaghetti dinner was held on January 22, 1982.

Many seniors, Miss Dillon, Mrs. Perry, Mr. Ducheneau and Head Chef Flaherty worked together to make the dinner a great success.

Boy-Girl Hockey

This year's Senior Boy-Girl Hockey Game was a huge success. The girls were coached by Mr. "Jumpin' Joe" Gearon. Great offensive plays were made by June Marshall and Katie Effgen who each scored a goal. The boys, coached by Mr. Hart, swept in three goals.

Thanks go to Mr. Flahive, Miss Dillon, Mrs. Perry and the teachers who helped to make this senior activity successful.

Senior Class Banquet

On April 30, 1982, the Westwood High School Cafeteria was transformed into a banquet hall for the Senior Class Banquet. The theme for the event was "Waiting On A Friend". The superlatives, presented by Green Years Editors Mary Ann Winkelmes and Kathy Burke, provided some memorable moments, as did the faculty imitations by Tom Glynn, Kathy Smith and Doug McKenna. Musical entertainment was provided by the Dance Band and Tumbling Dice, who also performed the theme. Many thanks to Miss Dillon, the senior class advisors, the Dance Band, and the senior class officers for making the banquet a success.

On May 28, 1982, the junior-senior prom was held at the King Phillip Ballroom in Wrentham. The theme for the evening was "Wishing on a Star", performed by the Marsels. The deserving queen of the prom was Carolyn Mason. Her court was well represented by Caroline Cavanaugh, Liz Lane, Jennifer Sterling, Lauren O'Brien, Jennifer Collins, Terry O'Toole, Ann Heffron and Sandy Bardzilowski. The seniors would like to thank the junior class for providing such a memorable evening.

Prom

After a long graduation practice on June 3rd, every senior beach bum at heart piled on the five awaiting busses and headed for Crane's beach. Although the sun was shy at times, everyone was able to enjoy themselves.

Everyone enjoyed games of volleyball, football and frisbee. These activities built up huge appetites which were satisfied with clam chowder, chicken, steamers, hotdogs and hamburgers.

A stereo effect was created when many radios blared Kiss 108.

As we headed back to Westwood we all realized that a comfortable sleep was not to be expected — sun burn fever plagued us all. We made memories and friends which will never be forgotten.

Senior Class Trip

Class

On June 4, 1982, we, as a class, assembled in the gym for Class Day. Mr. Kocina, Mr. Flaherty and Mr. Flahive presented awards and trophies, both academic and athletic, to recognize students' achievements. The class history, bringing back memories of our four years at Westwood High School, was presented by Dori White, Karen Burke, Pam Shippey and Caroline Cavanaugh. Cindy Collins read the class poem. Also the 1982 "Green Years" was dedicated, by yearbook editors Mary-Ann Winkelmes and Kathy Burke, to Mrs. Hollis Perry for her devotion, respect and love for the class of 1982.

Edward Le Cesne Byrne, our AFS. exchange student from Ireland, delivered his farewell speech, expressing his sincere gratitude for being able to study in our high school. He also wished the best of luck to the class of 1982.

As we filed out of the gym, we realized our four years at Westwood High School were finally culminating.

Day

Graduation

President's Speech

Reverend Clergy, Honored Guests, Administration and Faculty of Westwood High School, parents, and members of the Class of 1982, welcome to this afternoon's Commencement Exercises. Today is a stopping point in everyone's life, not just for those graduating today. In a sense, everyone present is graduating, for we all must adjust ourselves and look to the future with hope and courage. Today is a day to reflect on the high school memories which so often are the highlights of one's life. Each and every one of us has much to be proud of. Today is also a day to look forward and realize that we must go out into a world that is as unfamiliar with us as we are with it. Most of all, today is a day in which we should all recognize the value the past four years has had in our lives. It is a day to thank the many people in our lives who have helped us to this point.

As I look back, it seems to me that the Class of 1982 has been a class of tolerance. After three years of freedom during study periods, we were gradually restricted. When we came to this school as freshmen, we saw it as a big, beautiful school. In many ways this has changed, yet this is our Alma Mater; it has become a part of us. Here, at Westwood High School, we have gone through the most important growing experiences of our lives.

We are a class with many diverse interests. We have potential dancers, karate experts, businessmen, engineers, fashion designers, and housewives. Yet, unlike many classes, we had unity.

We were quite close academically and socially. But, most of all the Class of 1982 has just been a great bunch of people.

We have made the most of our senior year. You, my classmates, through your response and willingness to co-operate, have shown a certain spirit that is rarely seen. You have set an example that will be followed by classes to come.

The present situation in Westwood deserves a re-evaluation if future graduates are to have as many good memories as we have.

Westwood High School has many strengths. Unfortunately, some of these good points are overshadowed by a recent low in student morale. Many things have contributed to the low morale. Some of these can't be helped, like declining enrollment and the constant threat of budget cuts, which are often more rumor than reality.

Somehow these deleterious effects must be counterbalanced. I believe the best way to start is with greater involvement on the parents' behalf. Parent support is important, but student commitment is imperative. Most of all, the underclassmen must realize what they have at Westwood High School and take advantage of it.

We have much to be thankful for at Westwood High School. I have studied in many school systems, but never before have I seen teachers who care so much for their students. It is a special relationship; the more a teacher cares, the more a student is encouraged. It is in this dedication shown by the faculty at Westwood High School that there is hope for student morale.

On behalf of the class of 1982, I wish to thank the administration, dedicated faculty and the parents who have made our years of fun and achievement at Westwood High School possible. Thanks to the parents should not go unnoticed as they are desperately needed to uphold the standards of students in the future. I would especially like to thank my officers, George, Carol and Tony, for they have expressed the character of the class in their willingness to cooperate and stand by me throughout the year.

Fellow classmates, it is a turbulent world we face as graduates. The amount of foolish pride some nations exhibit, coupled with the growing threat of nuclear war, often make for an unsure future. Many people speak of apocalypse, but where does this negative talk really get us? We must look to the future with optimism.

Here at Westwood, we haven't given in to the negative. We have shown ourselves that difficult situations should be faced with tolerance and a positive outlook. It is my hope that we face the world, wherever we may be, with this optimistic outlook which is so needed if we are to survive as a planet today.

We stand here today, on the end of a bridge, ready to cross over. The moment is here — now. We cannot turn back, for "yesterday is already a dream and tomorrow is only a vision."

It is my hope that we, the Class of 1982, have taken advantage of these past four years at Westwood High School and have therefore made the yesterday a dream of happiness.

We look now on tomorrow with a "vision of hope". And, with our passage from these "Green Years" to our commencement of another life, I share the sentiments of the author of "Look to This Day": "Look well, therefore, to this day. Such is the Salutation of the Dawn."

Best wishes,
Andrew Hart

Valedictorian's Address

Thomas Jefferson once said, "The nation which wishes to be ignorant and free, wants what never was and never will be.", thus indicating the importance and value he placed on education. It is natural to reflect today on the education we have received and on the commitments we have made to begin the pursuit of knowledge again in the fall.

Since the G.I. Bill was passed after World War II, Americans have assumed that higher education is available for anyone who desires it. The result of this system is that we have people from all walks of life able to pursue their ideals. How can the American dream of public education remain the same with all the present King and Reagan budget cuts? How many people today can choose a college without considering the financial burden which accompanies attending college? Many students will not be able to fulfill their ambitions or reach their greatest potential.

Our principles of democracy, advancements in technology, and our present status as a great world power are all results of the fact that Americans have placed a very high priority on creating a nation with a high percentage of educated people. This country cannot continue to grow and prosper as it has in the past if its future generations are ignorant.

We have been very fortunate in that Westwood's school system has been rated as one of the top in Massachusetts and a large percentage of each graduating class continues on to higher education. Our class, however, may be one of the last to benefit from this outstanding system as we have not been affected by Proposition 2½ as it will affect future classes. The class of 1982 has received benefits from 12 years of strong academics, diverse extra-curricular activities and a great athletics program. I sincerely hope that all these qualities which place Westwood above other schools, are not lost as a result of the new budget programs.

If the present price of higher education continues to rise in the current manner, how will the average high school senior afford to pay for an education? Will the financial problems of today destroy our ideals of education and development in the future? Questions like, "Which school will give the biggest scholarship?", replace the question of, "Where can I receive a top quality education?". College is quickly becoming a luxury rather than a guaranteed opportunity in our society. Soaring college tuitions, diminishing financial aid, as well as a weak economic system, are taking a toll on those aspiring to acquire a higher education.

Higher education has shaped much of New England's society and economy for over 350 years. The unmatched pursuit of education in America is undergoing a crisis of survival between declining enrollment and escalating cost. There have been recent tuition hikes at both the public and private colleges. There is a great number of students who can't even afford the present cost, and for those students the dream of a college education has been shattered.

As I see it, the quality of education in the public colleges such as the University of Massachusetts, is destined to improve as the number of applications increase. The caliber of students applying to these schools is also higher due to the fact that the tuition is considerably lower.

These financial deficits could have a more serious effect in that they could create a socially segregated society. The private colleges for the rich; the public colleges for the middle class; and none for the rest. Think what will happen to our ideals of freedom and democracy if our educated officials and professional people come only from the upper classes.

In order to regain the harmony achieved in the past, a combined effort must be made by the government, the colleges, parents, students, and even industry.

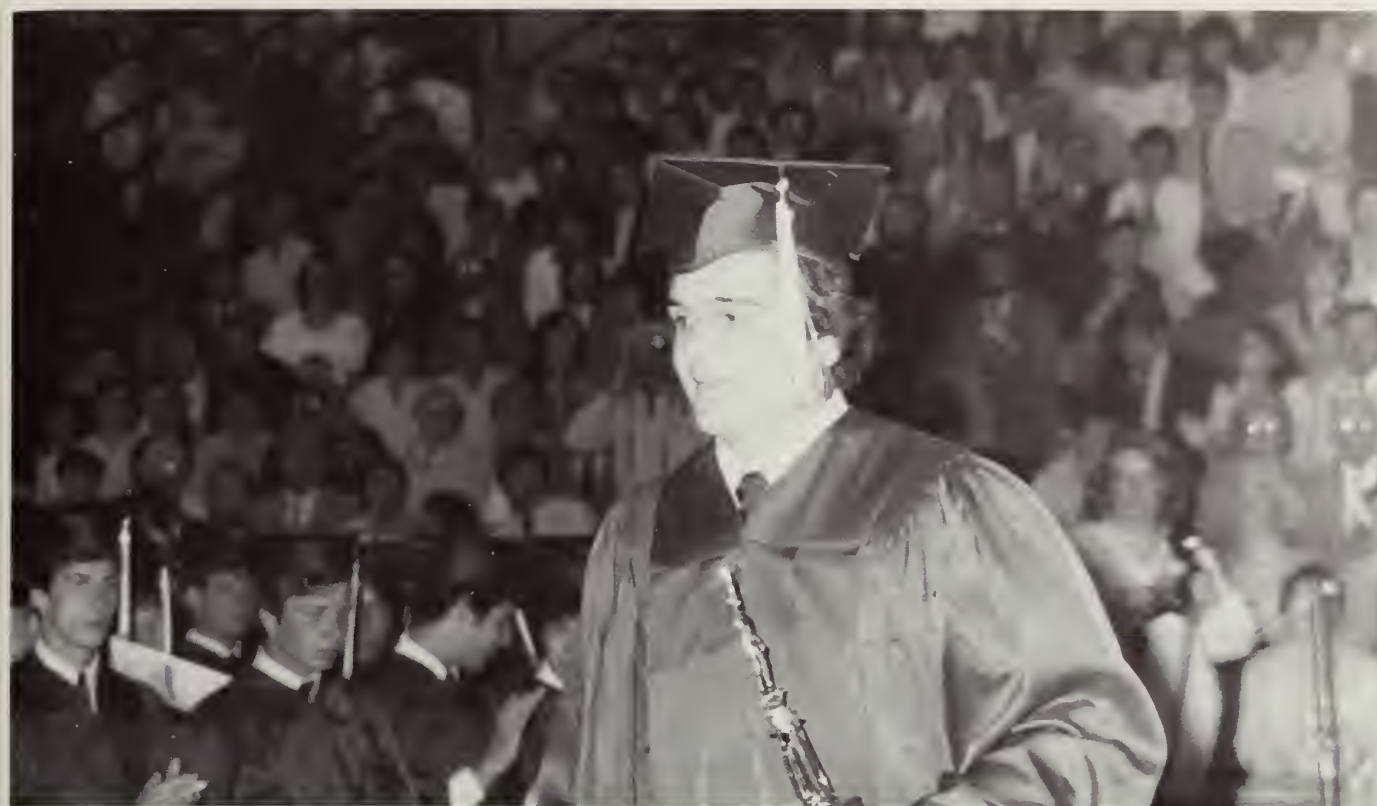

Although the present educational opportunities aren't as attractive as in past years, parents and students must continue to demand the education which they deserve.

I feel that the value of education is so high that everyone of us must do everything within his power to preserve and develop the present ideal of education.

What really matters is not only education, but self-confidence and belief in yourself. How close we come to success is based on the limitations we place on ourselves. If we, the Class of 1982, are not apathetic, but rather devote our talent to our community and the nation, this involvement will help to change the present financial policies and insure a better attitude towards higher education in the future. I wish each one of you years of success and happiness. Walk out in the world ready to dream, explore and discover something wonderful — discover yourselves. Most importantly, believe in yourselves, as I believe in you.

Good Luck,
Dana Zalkind

The Class of 1982 wishes to thank Mr. William Ducheneau, yearbook advisor, as well as Mr. Kocina, Mr. Flaherty, Mr. Flahive, Miss Dillon, Mr. Hancox, Mr. Milan, Mrs. Perry and the school secretaries for their help in preparing this yearbook.

The Black Rose as it is translated from its original Irish, Roisin Dubh, is certainly one of the most beautiful of many allegorical names for Ireland.

The symbol of the Black Rose rooted in Irish history endures today as a reminder of the struggles and pride of the Irish people. This tradition lives on at The Black Rose, a restaurant and club noted for its Irish atmosphere, good food and nightly entertainment. Mother Sweeney's Sunday Buffet is a treat not to be missed. "Ritz food at workingmen's prices," from 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Luncheon 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Daily. Full menu. Limited menu, 4 p.m.-12 a.m. And the best in live Irish entertainment is featured every night from 9:00 pm to 1:30 am. Also, Sunday afternoon, 4 pm-8 pm. Stay for our regular entertainment 9 pm-1:30 am. For good food and Irish music, come to The Black Rose! 160 State Street, 523-8486, 742-2286.

DEDICATION

TO OUR SON, EVERETT S. HENDERSON, JR. AND THE CLASS OF 1982.

FROM

YOUR PARENTS, MR. AND MRS. EVERETT S. HENDERSON, SR.

OF THE CLASS OF 1953.

FROM ONE GENERATION TO THE NEXT

TEN RULES TO FOLLOW ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS:

1. Never accept the phrase: "It can't be done".
2. Accept responsibilities: Family, Community, Occupationally.
3. Further your education if and where possible.
4. Gain practical experience, even while attending school.
5. Select an occupation that you not only do well, but love to do.
6. Be true to yourself.
"He who lies to himself will fail".
7. Failure is to gain valuable experience, the hard way. He who has never failed does not know the true feeling to success. While we do not propose that you, the class of 1982, go forward and fail, we do say if failure comes, accept it as part of the learning process, we call it graduating from the school of hard knocks.
8. On the ladder to success never step on others, as they are usually there on your way down the ladder.
9. Support your Government. Work for a good candidate, as well as work against a bad candidate.
10. Above all, be happy, accept change, be innovative, make the old better.
